GOVERNMENT’S NOTICE OF FILING
PURSUANT TO COURT’S SCHEDULING ORDER

The United States of America, by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby submits a notice of filing to inform the Court that it is the government’s position that an order under Local Rule 57.7(c) is not necessary in this case.

In addition, it is the government’s position that a juror questionnaire is not necessary. While the government understands that this case has drawn and will likely continue to attract media attention, the government is confident that the Court can add a question or questions to its regular voir dire process to elicit the necessary information about potential media exposure and allow for a complete assessment of the members of the jury pool for their potential service in this case.

Respectfully submitted,

JESSIE K. LIU
